

After the M.F.A.

A Panel Discussion by George Mason Alumni
Sheila McMullin, Ben Wilkins, Lauren Stahl, and Alison Strub

?? ?

Why the Flip Did We Do
This?

&

How Can We KEEP Doing
This?

? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?

Graphic Medicine www.graphicmedicine.org

grap hic medi cine

IMAGE COPYRIGHT THOM FERRER 2011

a site that explores the interaction between the medium of comics and the discourse of healthcare. You'll find a growing collection of comic reviews, articles, podcasts, links, and coverage of our international Comics and Medicine Conferences. We encourage participation by academics, health carers, authors, artists, fans, and anyone involved with comics and medicine.

RUTH'S BOOK

Cervical cancer at 39 and 14 married years.

Ruth's doctor: breast cancer in Anglos, and Latinas get cervical cancer.

why?

Because. Anglos smoke more and you tend to have sex earlier with multiple sexual partners.

so this is why I got cancer. Yes, he said. he said yes.

contemplating flower petals

emmis is truth

I was treated with the sunlight

uniting spaceship earth

fucking derelict

80 million stories

Aunt Clara in her habit is 105 years old

Burns sugar incessantly

Chicken skin in her blood

Forever over the hell and call it earth, call it sunshine.

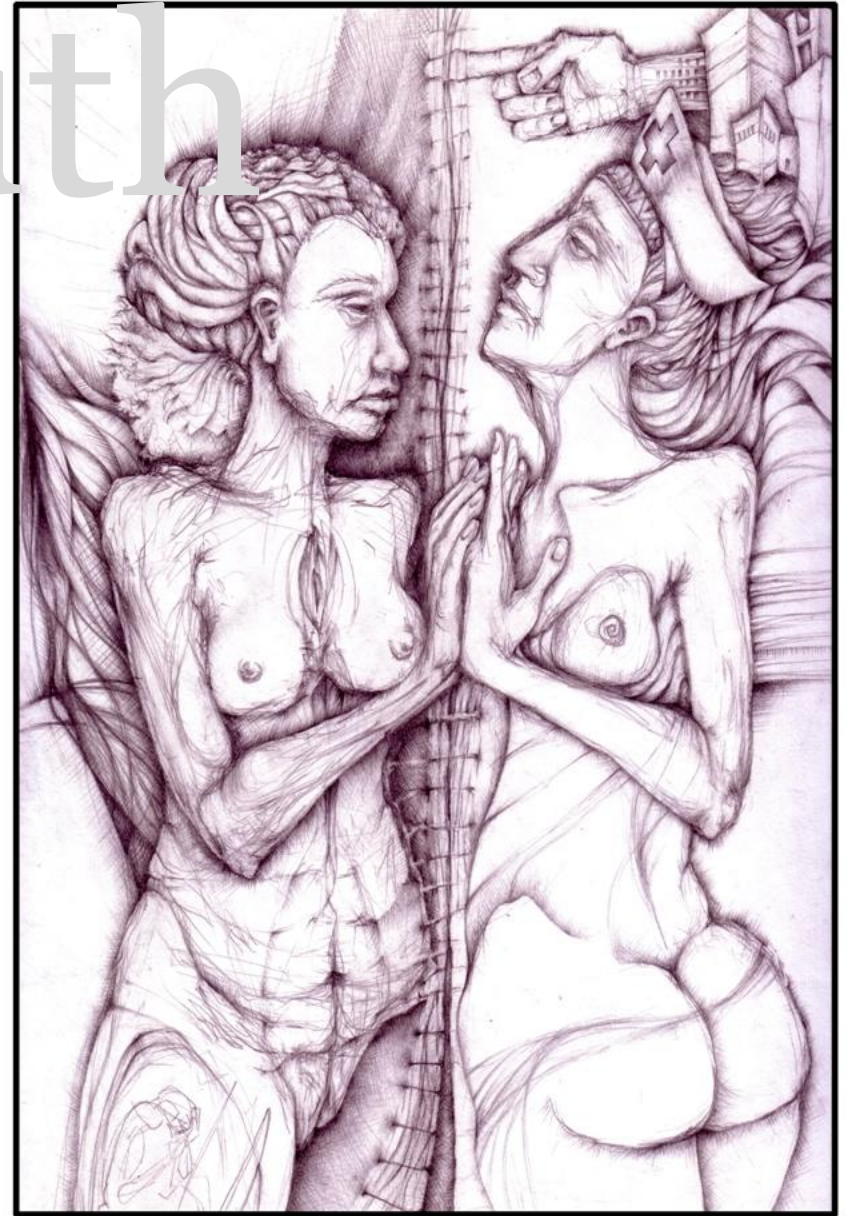

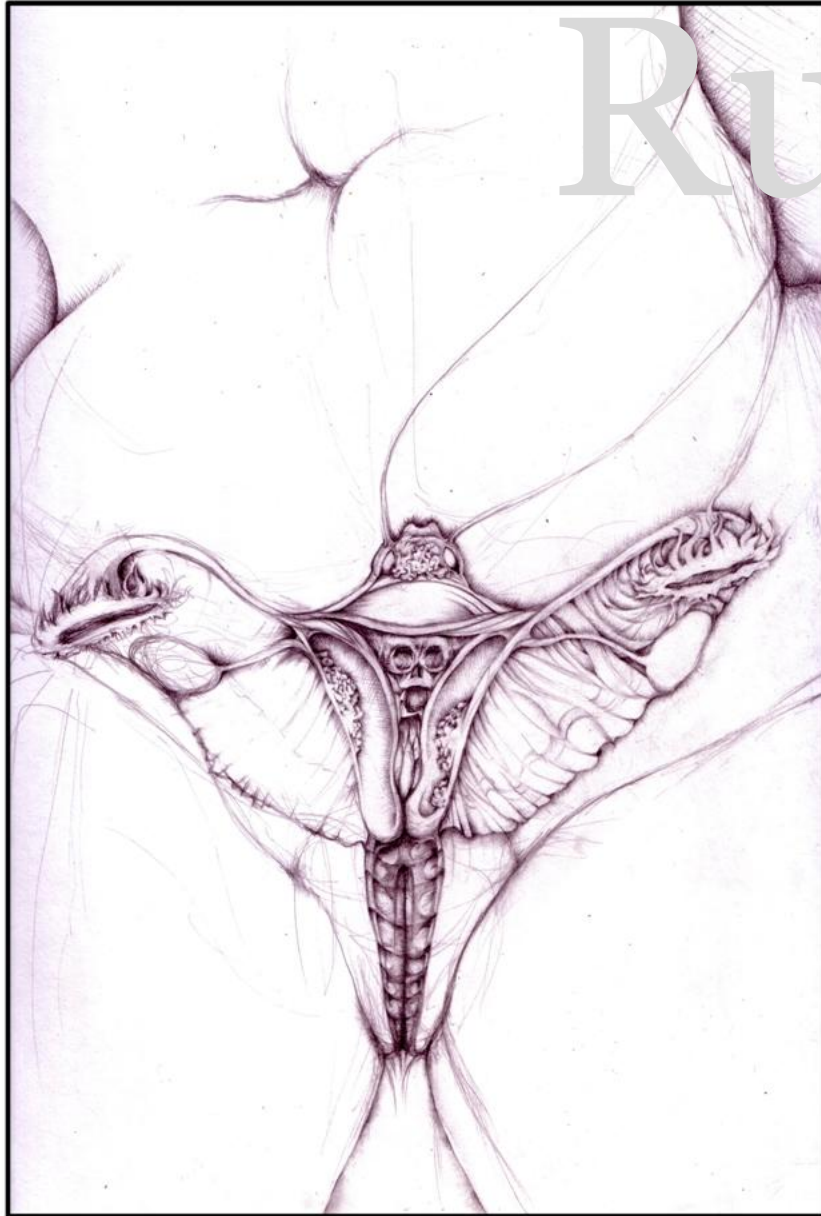

God was in the movement and in the helmets.

Olga, oh olgy olga, there are far too many people

In the world to love you and only you.

(listen: first doorway then run then cave) this passage that the gift is equal to God's hand over your belly over the earth

Artist: Kata Faust

Ruth

Email: kfaus001@ucr.edu